SLUMP BRINGS FORTH CIVIL WAR CURRENCY

ALBANY, Ore. (U.P.)—President Hoover's anti-hoarding campaign is having results here. Four "shipplasters," or money issued by the federal government during the Civil War, were presented by a local bank patron and were accepted at face value.

The bills had been in possession of the hoarder's family for 75 years.

Trees Produce Jumping Beans

ALBANY, Ore. (U.P.)—Jumping proclivities of Mexican beans are put to shame by Albany's home-grown variety.

The local product is hardly a bean, growing on the under side of oak leaves. A specimen defied identification of amateur scientists, who expressed the opinion that the larvae of some insect.

The tan-colored pellets, which resembled a Mexican jumping bean, but were far more active.

Methodist Pastor and Wife Return From Vacation

Rev. Kemp J. Winkler, pastor of the Methodist church, and Mrs. Winkler, returned last Saturday from their summer vacation. During their absence the pulpit was supplied by guest preachers from Gardena and Redondo. Mr. and Mrs. Winkler report a very good vacation, their time having been spent in visiting their parents in Los Angeles and Fillmore. Mr. Winkler was in his pulpit Sunday, September 4, and states that with the opening of school next week the fall program of the church will get into full swing.

An item of unusual interest is the announcement that Dr. Elmer E. Helms will preach in the Torrance church the morning of October 2. At the close of this month Dr. Helms will retire from the pastorate of the First Methodist church of Los Angeles, thereby closing a pastorate of 12 years and a life ministry of 40 years. October 2 will be the first Sunday following that retirement and will be given by Dr. Helms to the Torrance church.

Evangelistic Service Held at Christian Church

The Torrance Men's Bible class, Rev. George Elder, teacher, will have charge of the evening evangelistic service at the Torrance Christian church next Sunday, September 11. The Grant-Chapel male quartet of Los Angeles, reputed to be one of the finest colored singing organizations in Southern California, has been secured to sing at this special service. Those who attend this service will also hear Miss Irma Stover of Long Beach, the Scottish singer who has delighted several Torrance audiences. Evangelist Josephine Greathouse of Los Angeles will deliver the sermon, her subject being, "The One by the Way."

Rev. George Elder, pastor of the local Christian church and teacher of the Men's Bible class, said: "The members of the class, their families and sweethearts, plan to attend the service in large numbers. The two center sections in the church auditorium will be reserved for their accommodation. The service will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock."

CENTRAL EVANGELICAL

HAS AUTO LICENSE TAG IN 48 STATES
IDAHO FALLS, Ida. (U.P.)—One motorist—declined to reveal his name—has hit upon a novel way of proving that he's an extensive traveler.

The tourist displayed a collection of 48 automobile license plates, representing each state in the union.

"Now," he smiled, "when I tell 'em I've visited every state, they can't contradict me."

Harvel Offers to Test Radio Tubes Free of Charge

A new type visible radio tube tester has been installed by Harvel's, 1618 Cravens avenue, for the accurate testing of any type of radio tubes. The new machine is an ingenious device, which shows clearly the exact condition of the tube being tested. Harvel offers to test anyone's radio tubes free of charge and without obligation.

Many times when trouble occurs in a radio, the owner will go to the expense of buying new tubes, when the fault may not be tube trouble at all. The installation of the new tube tester by Harvel's is prompted by a desire to save patrons the expense of buying new tubes when such replacements are not necessary.

Jesse Felleman to Sing Here

Jesse Felleman, noted tenor song-bird of the Pacific fleet, will sing several selections at the regular session of the Torrance Men's Bible class next Sunday morning, September 11. Mr. Felleman is also a splendid yodeler and will yodel before the class at that time. Mr. Felleman is a favorite in Torrance, having made a score or more appearances before various groups.

COLORFUL PEACE OFFICER HEADS PARADE

Sheriff J. J. Craxon, 76-year-old peace officer of San Benito county, California, as he appeared on Palomino in parade uniforms to lead processions at the annual saddle horse show in Hollister Aug. 25-28. One of the oldest peace officers in California from point of service, he has held the office of sheriff of his county for 34 consecutive years. He won the name "Jerry Gets His Man" more than 30 years ago, when he was a comparative novice in the art of running down criminals. Jerry is a native son.

KNOWN WHERE THRIFTY BUYERS GATHER

"Such Service, such Bargains - you've never seen the Equal!"

FROM present customer to new spreader the story of the Associated Grocers. And no wonder. It is a story of unusual bargains at a time when unusual savings are welcomed. It is a story, too, of a famous personal service which everyone enjoys... and which comes from the owner-manager himself.

But even those customer friends who speak most highly of the advantages of trading with an Associated Grocer know little of the complete A-G idea. To know that, one must be familiar with the efforts of these grocers to buy as a group in order to sell at reduced prices. One must know of their determination to feature nationally advertised foods in preference to products of less repute... their decision to keep their stores cheerful, friendly places to shop, as well as neat and clean and attractive.

Involved as the A-G story may seem, the interpretation for you need only be this: To save more, to be better satisfied, to help a self-owned and self-operated business (the backbone of any sound and progressive community), trade with an Associated Grocer!
